4. What do you see as the most important issues facing this community?
There are several major planning projects facing this community now. I want to be working with residents Regarding these projects.

5. Please enter your 300-word (or less) Bio below.

I got my undergraduate degree at the University of South Carolina in 1965. Met and married my husband in 1968. Later went to George Mason School of Law and graduated in 1992. I practiced law in Virginia for over 25 years doing family law. My husband was a professor at George Mason and his work involved traveling all over the world. I often went with and have a lot of experience with other communities. I also learned to speak several languages.

I have two sons, one who lives in Vail and one in Virginia. The one here has a high tech job and the one in Virginia is an attorney. Both have families whom I see often. When my sons were in their teens we lived in Rotterdam Holland for six months while we monitored 30 American college students. We moved to Arizona in July 2015 after my husband retired to be near our son and his family who live here. My husband died in 2019 and I continued to stay here as I enjoy the community.
